

CCW Meeting
Monday, November 17, 2014
12:15-1:30 Rm. 1849 Student Center

Agenda

Approval of Minutes: October 27th, 2014

Continuing the Conversation: BOR/CSCU Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Assault and Intimate Partner Violence Policy.

Updates:

- CCSU's AAUP President, Mary Ann Mahoney, stated that CSU's lawyer, Stephen Adler, is reviewing the new Sexual Assault protocols. She recommended that we wait to hear the findings of his review before we proceed with notifying the Faculty Senate or any other groups on campus regarding our concerns.
- The Office of Diversity and Equity arranged Title IX training in person in addition to on-line opportunities in the future, as many of us are not clear about the nature and implications of these changes to federal and local policies. Updates from those who attended

Sub-Committee Updates:

Women's History Luncheon: Heather Prescott is the Chair for this committee. Suggestions at the first meeting included having a lecture and reception instead of a luncheon; and inviting a female athlete as a speaker possibly Melissa Harris-Perry as our women's history month speaker. A survey will be sent to students to gauge their interest regarding various activities to increase participation.

Work Life Balance: Planning to coordinate a system-wide conference regarding work/life balance best practices that would provide the opportunity to share some of what each campus is doing and can benefit other and collectively plan for the future.

Financial Report:

Women's Studies Sponsorship- $200

Old Business: Update regarding the email announcement by Mark McLaughlin

Budget:

Vacant Position: Treasurer, a call for nominations
