

CENTRAL
CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

Your Off-Campus Commuting Options

Use Your U-PASS CT – Ride for FREE!

Central CT State University students can ride most transit services in Connecticut for FREE using your U-Pass CT and valid student ID. Pick up yours at the Card Office!
More info at CTrides.com/u-pass

CTfastrak 140 – CCSU Connector provides access between CCSU and two CTfastrak stations.

CTfastrak 128 connects CCSU with Westfarms, West Hartford, and Hartford.

Bus:

CTfastrak 144 connects CCSU with Westfarms and Newington.

CTtransit 507 – Oak Street connects CCSU with downtown New Britain.

CTtransit 928 – Southington – Cheshire – Waterbury Express connects CCSU to these towns.

CTrail Hartford Line service operates between Springfield, Hartford, and New Haven. Convenient connections are available at New Haven Union Station for New Haven Line (Metro-North), CTrail Shore Line East, and Amtrak services. U-Pass is not valid on Amtrak (except Amtrak trains between New Haven and Springfield, excluding the Vermonter). More info at HartfordLine.com, MTA.info/mnr, ShoreLineEast.com, and Amtrak.com.

Rail:

New York City: Connections available using New Haven Line (Metro-North) to Grand Central Terminal or Amtrak to Penn Station.

Carpool:

Use the CTrides app on iOS or Android to find other students, faculty, and staff looking to carpool to and from campus.

Airport Connection:

Use CTfastrak to get to Hartford. From Hartford Union Station, take CTtransit 30 – Bradley Flyer to Bradley International Airport 7 days/week. More info at CTtransit.com/services/bradley-flyer.

Use New Haven Line (Metro-North) or Amtrak service to get to New York City area airports.

Download the CTrides app Today!

Fewer cars. Better air. Healthier lives.